

CHARGE AHEAD

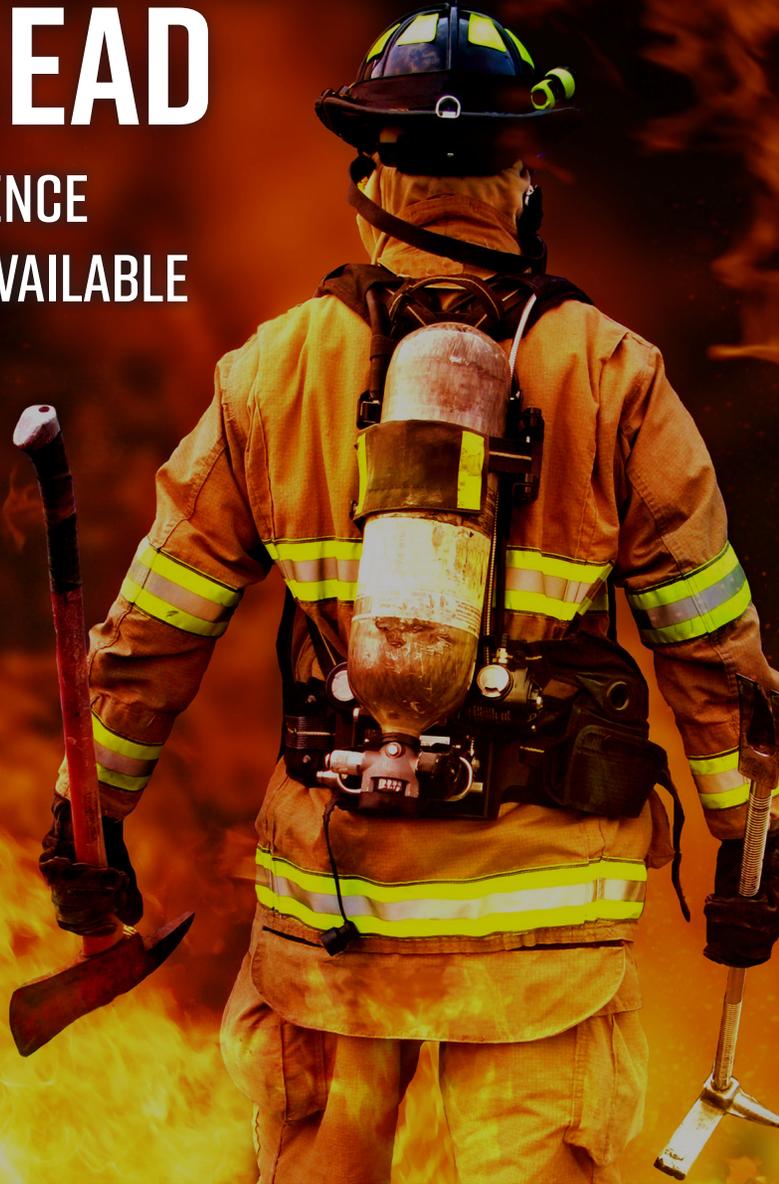

EARN YOUR B.S. IN FIRE SCIENCE

100% ONLINE OPTION NOW AVAILABLE

A Bachelor of Science degree is an increasingly valuable asset if you would like to enter and advance in the fire service. NJCU offers the only university-based fire science program in New Jersey and is ranked #8 in the country by bestcolleges.com.

Here, you'll:

- Learn from renowned experts in firefighting specialties
- Get one-on-one student advisement and assistance
- Benefit from support navigating fire services job opportunities for NJCU students and alumni
- Save money at one of the least expensive universities in the state

APPLY NOW

Study online or in-person at our main campus in Jersey City or at Brookdale Community College's Wall campus. NJCU has transfer agreements with Brookdale Community College and Camden County College, allowing students who earn associate's degrees to seamlessly transfer to NJCU and complete the B.S. in Fire Science.

For more information and to apply, visit njcu.edu/firesciencedegree

Walter Nugent, MPA

Chair, Fire Science Department
201-200-3407 • wnugent@njcu.edu

Anna Scanniello

Administrative Assistant, Fire Science Department
201-200-3370 • ascanniell@njcu.edu