Department that have yet to complete the data entry for 2015-16 Assessment cycle will be contacted by a PACC member:

1. Winifred will follow-up with the PACC contact from the History, Modern Language and the Music, Dance and Theatre department.
2. Cheryl will follow-up with the PACC contact from the Geoscience, Health Sciences and Professional Security Studies department.
3. Women's and Gender studies typically report at the close of the Spring semester.
4. Cheryl and Sue will discuss with COE leadership the possibility of COE opting out of PACC in lieu of CAEP Accreditation.
5. The Dean of CAS will be advised of the status of the Philosophy, Psychology and Sociology department.

3. Review of results from submitting departments:

1. Biology department – Laine will follow-up with expected changes and report out to the committee.
2. Chemistry department – Discussion regarding the possibility of using formative assessment measures. Need to have Chemistry department move yearly reporting of individual student assessment.
3. Mathematics – Seems to be on target.
4. Media Arts – Winifred will follow-up regarding details of the modifications to instruction.
5. Economics – Need to clarify if the same questions and modifications are being used for more than one outcome.
6. Fitness Exercise & Sports – Continue to report out expecting a BS in exercise Science in the near future.
7. Graduate School Nurse Certificate – Seems to be on target.

4. Identified strategies for continued data collection.

1. Send reminder to Deans and Chairs regarding PACC submissions.
2. Check on Chair compensation regarding PACC responsibilities.

5. Committee members for 2016-2017 PACC

1. Committee member wishing to step down will indicate same to Cheryl.
2. Nurdan has agreed to sit on the Committee as a representative of the Provost's Office

Enjoy the Lazy Days of Summer!

Respectfully Submitted,

Cheryl
