

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES

Critical Thinking & Ethics

Criteria	Level 4 – Exemplary	Level 3 - Acceptable	Level 2 – Fair	Level 1 – Below Expectations
Captions and photographs critically analyze how power manifests in one's life and community	Captions and photographs have a nuanced critical analysis of how power manifests in one's life and community	Captions and photographs have some critical analysis of how power manifests in one's life and community	Captions and photographs barely critically analyze how power manifests in one's life and community	Captions and photographs have no analysis of how power manifests in the student's life or community
Captions provide enough detail and specificity to understand the argument conveyed by the photography	Captions are very detailed and specific so the student's argument is easily discernible	Captions are somewhat detailed and specific so the student's argument is less discernible	Captions are sparse or vague so the student's argument is difficult to discern	Captions are too vague or general so the student's argument is undiscernible
Photographs chosen reflect reproductive justice and reproductive oppression	Photographs are carefully, thoughtfully selected to represent reproductive justice and reproductive oppression	Photographs are somewhat thoughtfully chosen to represent reproductive justice and reproductive oppression	Photographs have scant attention to reproductive justice and reproductive oppression	Photographs do not represent reproductive justice and reproductive oppression
Captions and photographs demonstrate compassion for self and others	Captions and photographs are non-judgmental about the subject of the image and conditions surrounding the image	Captions and photographs are slightly judgmental about the subject of the image and conditions surrounding the image	Captions and photographs are moderately judgmental about the subject of the image and conditions surrounding the image	Captions and photographs are very judgmental about the subject of the image and conditions surrounding the image
Photographs and captions creatively imagine what reproductive justice looks like in one's life and community	Photographs and captions demonstrate a high level of creativity and imagination about what reproductive justice looks like in one's life and community	Photographs and captions demonstrate an average level of creativity and imagination about what reproductive justice looks like in one's life and community	Photographs and captions demonstrate a fair level of creativity and imagination about what reproductive justice looks like in one's life and community	Photographs and captions do not demonstrate any creativity or imagination about what reproductive justice looks like in one's life and community