BUSINESS EXPERIENCEJPMORGAN CHASE BANK, New York, NY*2003 - 2015Vice President, Product Management, Treasury Services (2010 – 2015)

The faculty line at NJCU overlapped with the role at JPMorgan from 2013 through 2015. This overlap occurred because JPMorgan requested additional time due to the debt ceiling crisis within the federal government. Permission was granted by NJCU and JPMorgan to have a short-term dual role, which concluded in 2015.

Responsibilities during this period included:

- Developing global business strategies for Treasury Services Product
- Chairing the Treasury Services Liquidity Risk and Compliance Committee, with oversight for AML, FATCA, KYC, and Dodd-Frank compliance issues in the business. Acted as subject matter expert (SME) on compliance issues within Liquidity.
- Handling administrative responsibilities for the Treasury Services Intern and Analyst programs, including university placements.
- Serving as the Global Project Manager for large-scale projects related to Cash Concentration.
- Managing analytics teams that supported global Treasury Liquidity, including daily balances monitoring and reporting to the Federal Reserve (Fed), Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), and JPMorgan CEO. These daily reports covered approximately $285 billion.

Vice President, Product Management, Worldwide Securities Services (2006 – 2010)

Collateral Management responsibilities included:

- Leading teams in the US, UK, and India to implement a new security collateralization product platform.
 - Served as a Project Manager for several multi-year/multi-million-dollar initiatives, overseeing the implementation of products such as Cash Collateral Management (CCM) and Securities Collateral Management.
- Managed Collateral Management for US Broker Dealer (SCM) and Derivatives Collateral Management (DCM).
 - Acting as the Product Manager for Broker Dealers, Banks, and Hedge Funds/Private Equity.
- Managed multiple global product lines, including Tri-Party Equity (TPR), Public Funds Collateral Management, Securities Collateral Management, and Stock Loan Escrow (SLE).
 - Successfully grew balances from zero to $40 billion, generating revenue of $3.7 million over a 9-month period.

Vice President, Project Management, Retail Financial Services (2003 – 2006)

Chase Insurance Group VP responsibilities included:

- Managed the implementation of a new Agency Management System for the Private Client Group, resulting in increased sales volume and revenue.

- Created and approved business and systems requirements, ensuring alignment with organizational objectives.
- Managed risks by implementing and monitoring financial and operational controls for the business.
- Led projects utilizing either Waterfall or Agile processes, depending on the project's needs.
- Maintained a leadership role throughout the project lifecycle, from inception to implementation, while effectively leading cross-functional teams.

PRUDENTIAL FINANCIAL, Newark, NJ1997 - 2003Director Public Relations, Investments (2001 - 2003)

Public Relations Director responsibilities included:

- Developing and implementing comprehensive branding strategies and marketing communications for all investment products offered through both affiliated and non-affiliated channels, including Mutual Funds and Annuities.
- Collaborating with the President of Prudential Investments to devise business strategies and create compelling content aimed at enhancing product positioning among distributors and the sales force (financial advisors, wholesalers), while ensuring compliance with all regulations.
- Responsible for a budget of $1.5 million allocated for the development and launch of targeted public relations programs directed at the media, industry professionals, and stakeholders.

Senior Project Manager, Field Impact Testing and Integration (1999 - 2001)

- Led the implementation of impactful strategic initiatives aimed at enhancing productivity and profitability within the national retail sales force. Key areas of focus included communications, training, product development, software enhancements, procedural changes, regulatory requirements, and compensation issues.
- Managed two strategic 'SWAT' teams tasked with expanding the distribution of insurance products through the agent sales force. Successfully executed initiatives that led to increased market penetration and revenue growth.
- Partnered and relocated to top sales force in South Carolina to increase agent productivity and customer satisfaction. Achieved significant improvements in agent recruitment and increased customer retention by 2%, contributing to overall business growth and success.

Senior Project Manager, Voice of the Customer (1997 - 1999)

- Directed multiple teams with the objective of enhancing written customer communications. Collaborated closely with business partners to revamp and establish a standardized output format, and successfully managed the transition from legacy systems to cutting-edge platforms for communication delivery.
- Managed a dynamic communications team, overseeing the entire process from gathering business requirements to implementing client communications for Individual Life and Retirement Services. Achieved streamlined and effective communication strategies that resonated with customers.
- Facilitated customer focus groups to gather valuable feedback on the design and overall impact of communications. Utilized this input to continuously improve the customer experience and meet their evolving needs.

- Acted as a liaison to legal and compliance departments, ensuring that all communications adhered to regulatory guidelines and maintained the highest standards of compliance.
- Awarded the prestigious "Dalbar" Communications Award in 2000 for outstanding communications design, highlighting the commitment to delivering clear and engaging messages to customers.
- Managed risks associated with product communications to ensure compliance with state regulations, mitigating potential issues and maintaining a strong reputation for regulatory adherence.
